COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, Plaintiffs, Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri and Elizabeth Al Bakri, in the above-styled and numbered case, and for cause of action would show unto the Court the following:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This is a civil action seeking mandamus, declaratory, and injunctive relief based on the failure of the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (“CIS”) to adjudicate the I-130 petition filed by Elizabeth Al Bakri and the application for adjustment of status filed by Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri. The applications were filed on August 1, 2001.

II. JURISDICTION

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the present action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question jurisdiction); 28 U.S.C. § 2201 (Declaratory Judgment Act); 5 U.S.C. § 555 and § 701 et seq. (Administrative Procedures Act); and 28 U.S.C. § 1361 (mandamus statute). Relief is requested pursuant to said statutes.

III. VENUE

3. Venue is appropriate in the District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391(e). Plaintiffs reside at 7705 Keating Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, 60652, which is within the jurisdiction of the Northern District of Illinois.

IV. PLAINTIFFS

4. Plaintiff Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri is a citizen of Yemen. He was born on March 1, 1968. Plaintiff Elizabeth (Gonzales) Al Bakri is a United States citizen. Plaintiffs were married on July 9, 2001.

5. Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri is an applicant for adjustment of status in the United States. His application for adjustment of status was filed with United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) Chicago District Office on August 1, 2001 and remains pending. The adjustment application is based on the I-130 petition that Plaintiff Elizabeth Al Bakri filed on behalf of her husband when the adjustment of status application was filed. Plaintiffs have not received a decision on the I-130 petition or the I-485 application.

V. DEFENDANTS

6. Defendant Gerard Heinauer is the Acting Director of the CIS Chicago District Office. This is the local CIS Office having jurisdiction over Plaintiff's adjustment of status application and where the Plaintiff's adjustment of status application was filed. The Chicago District Office has original jurisdiction over family based adjustment of status applications as well as the I-130 petition.

7. Defendant Emilio T. Gonzalez is the Director of United States Citizenship and Immigration Services.

8. Defendant Michael Chertoff is the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. As a result of a massive reorganization, the Immigration and Naturalization Service was dissolved on March 1, 2003 and its functions were taken over by the Department of Homeland Security. "CIS" is a branch of the Department of Homeland Security.

9. Alberto Gonzales is the Attorney General of the United States.

10. All Defendants are being sued in their official capacities.

VI. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

11. Plaintiff Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri is an applicant for adjustment of status in the United States. Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri married his spouse, Elizabeth Gonzalez, on July 9, 2001. See Exhibit A (copy of marriage license).

12. Based upon Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri's marriage to Elizabeth Gonzalez, a United States' Citizen, he applied to adjust his status to that of Permanent Resident Alien by concurrently submitting Form I-130 and Form I-485 on August 1, 2001. See Exhibit B (copy of Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri I-130/I-485 Receipt Notice and receipt showing the filing fees were paid). The I-130 form is the petition filed Elizabeth Al Bakri on behalf of her husband that serves as the basis of establishing eligibility for adjustment of status. The I-485 is filed by the person seeking to become a lawful permanent resident and can be adjudicated concurrently with the I-130. The I-485 is the adjustment of status application.

13. On February 6, 2002, Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri attended a fingerprint/biometrics appointment with the CIS Chicago District Office, as he was notified to do by CIS in order to continue the processing of his adjustment of status application. See Exhibit C, (Local Processing Sheet from Chicago District Office).

14. On November 7, 2003, Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri attended a fingerprint/biometrics appointment with the CIS Chicago District Office, as he was notified to do by CIS in order to continue the processing of his adjustment of status application. See Exhibit D, (Appointment Notice for Fingerprints and Local Processing Sheet).

15. On February 17, 2004, Plaintiffs attended an interview with the CIS Chicago District Office, as they were notified to do by CIS in order to continue the processing of the I-130 and adjustment of status applications. See Exhibit E, (Interview Notice for I-485 Application with CIS Chicago).

16. On August 3, 2005, Plaintiff inquired as to the status of his case with the Chicago District Office. See Exhibit F, (Status Inquiry Form).

17. On August 5, 2005, Elizabeth Al Bakri wrote a letter to CIS Chicago District Office explaining that her husband's passport was taken by the Officer because he was going to take two months to investigate why two pages were allegedly missing in Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri passport. See Exhibit G, (See Letter from Elizabeth Al Bakri, August 5, 2005).

18. On December 13, 2005, Elizabeth Al Bakri wrote a letter to the CIS Chicago District Office explaining that her husband's passport was taken by Officer Dominquez. She stated that the passport had not been returned by CIS and that they had not received any response. See Exhibit H, (See Letter from Elizabeth Al Bakri, December 13, 2005).

VII. CAUSE OF ACTION

19. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1-18 of the Complaint.

20. Plaintiffs are requesting that Defendants immediately take all actions necessary to adjudicate the I-130 and adjustment of status applications. These applications have been pending since August 1, 2001. Plaintiffs have not been informed of a decision on either the I-130 or I-485.

21. Plaintiffs have a clear right to have the I-130 and adjustment of status applications adjudicated in a timely manner. The adjudication of immigration applications is a ministerial, non-discretionary task that Defendants must perform within a reasonable period of time. See Yu v. Brown, 36 F.Supp.2d 922, 931 (D.N.M. 1999).

22. Defendants have failed to properly carry out their adjudicative functions delegated to them. The Government officials and Agencies named in the Complaint violated their statutory and regulatory duties owed to Plaintiffs to timely adjudicate the I-

130 and I-485, which have been pending almost five years. See 5 U.S.C. § 555(b)(Agency required to conclude matters presented to it within a reasonable period of time). This is certainly ample time to complete any investigation and issue a decision. The delay in adjudicating the case is entirely unreasonable.

23. No other adequate remedy is available to the Plaintiffs. The delay in processing is unjustified. Plaintiffs have made inquiries regarding the status of the applications but have not received a decision from CIS. Thus, Plaintiffs have been forced to file the instant Complaint.

24. The delay has resulted in significant hardship to Plaintiffs. Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri has been deprived of the status of lawful permanent residence during the pendency of his application. As a result, he will not be able to apply for citizenship for undue period of time. He also must apply for employment authorization each year and cannot travel outside of the United States. Elizabeth, as Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri's wife, has also suffered hardship as she cannot move on with her life until the uncertainty surrounding the applications is resolved. The long delay has caused undue stress to Plaintiffs.

VIII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that the Court:

- (1) Assume jurisdiction of this cause;
- (2) Declare that the delay in adjudicating the I-130 and I-485 applications is unreasonable.
- (3) Compel the Defendants and those acting under them to perform their duties as required under the applicable statutes and regulations relating to adjudication of adjustment of status applications and immigrant visa petitions.
- (4) Compel Defendants to immediately take all actions necessary to adjudicate the I-130 petition filed by Elizabeth Al Bakri and the I-485 adjustment of status application filed by Abdulqader Ali Al Bakri within 30 days of this Court's Order.
- (5) Grant reasonable attorney's fees;
- (6) Grant any other relief as this Court deems proper.
